Note

I was born in Milan, Italy but I lived in New York (New York City and Long Island) from 1990 to 2002. I am currently based in Milan, where I spend most of the year though I usually move to London in November/December and to Catania (in Sicily) in June/July. I also spend a lot of time in Barcelona, Spain. And, who knows, I might end up back in NY for a while. I still have many friends there.
